

Sommerakademie Venedig

Young Talent Scholarship Program

Within the International Summer Academy of Fine Arts and Media, in Venice Italy with its 15 master classes of the different art disciplines and about 150 students participating every year, a laboratory with focus on new developments and trends will be held in 2017.

2016 the focus was directed upon the "Performative Character of the Fine Arts." In 2017 we offer scholarships for the master classes "Sculpture", "Art & Performance" as well as "New Media Art."

In 2017 we offer a total of 9 scholarships including the participation fees, 4 also including accommodation at the Palazzo Zenobio. Students who want to apply are asked to send their project description and if necessary also pictures or other visual material per mail to news@sommerakademievenedig.com until latest April 16th 2017.

We invite students to interdisciplinary project groups to develop new forms of „Performative Concepts of Fine Arts“:

Art & Performance: Jay Pather, choreographer and director of the Gordon Institute for Performing and Creative Arts and chairman of the National Arts Festival Artistic Committee, South Africa.

Sculpture: Andrzej Welmiński, member of Tadeusz Kantor's Cricot 2 Theatre company.

New Media Art: Jens Barth, Media artist; member of the jury for the innovation award "Open Mind" and „Kunst und Technik.“
